delinquents to the paths of virtue and integrity. -Baltimore American.

I have heard a good anecdote here, of one of your Boston men, which is too good to be kept from your readers Theodore D. Parker, Esq., a merchant in your city, happened a few weeks since to be a guest for one night at Mr. Knapp's hotel. After tea, as he was enjoying the cool ness of the evening breeze on the piazza, he noticed a gentleman in the office who was examining the book of arrivals, and who afterwards walked up and down the piazza, scanning him (Mr. P.) very closely Some ten or fifteen minutes passed in this way, when the cranger broke the stience by addressing him : " Is your name Parker, sir?"

' Yes, sir." "Theodore Parker?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you come from Boston, sir ?" "Yes, sir "Then, sir " (with a look as if the identity

the individual were fairly established.) suppose that you are the man who goes about in New England, villifying the institutions of "O no, no !" answered the astonished Mr.

THE END OF A CAREER OF CRIME .- On Friday night last, Lorenzo S. Felt, of this city, committed suicide in jail at Salem, by hanging his self to the bars of his cell. Felt for a long period carried on a medical office in this city, under the name of Doctor Feit. Some half dozen years sgo, the police of this city and Essex county made important disgoveries relative to a gang of some thirty or forey persons, including justices of the peace, constables, and some lawyers, who were engaged in the perpetration of robberies by the wholesale, plundering stores, hotels, stealing horses, &c., their headquarters being in Essex county. A number of this gang were arrested in Essex county, tried, convicted and punished, but others escaped, it is believed through the dead. To this gang Dr. Felt belonged He was afterwards arrested here on a charge of horse-stealing in New Hampshire, and carried there for trial, the result of which we do not
